S+H CONSTRUCTION AND NEWTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO HOST A SPECIAL PANEL ON HISTORIC RENOVATION

On Monday, March 23rd S+H Construction, award-winning experts in residential and historic renovations, along with the Newton Historical Society's Century Club will host a panel of experts for a lively discussion on renovating a historic property. Entitled, "Historic Renovation: Everything You Need To Know But Are Afraid To Ask (...Until Now!)," the informal Q & A presentation will focus on how to remain true to a home's historic character while making it functional for contemporary living.

Moderated by Kyle Hoepner, editor-in-chief of New England Home magazine, the panel includes: Doug Hanna, president of S+H Construction; Sarah Lawson, S+H project manager; Treff LaFleche, Historic Newton board member and principal of LDa Architecture & Interiors; and Dee Elms, principal of Terrat Elms Interior Design. The special event will begin at 7:00 pm at Historic Newton's newly opened museum and educational center: the Durant-Kenrick House and Grounds, 286 Waverley Avenue, Newton and includes a pre-presentation reception.

The panelists will discuss the common challenges historic homeowners and prospective historic home buyers face when restoring a historic property. Key points will include the different levels of restoration, the permitting process and how to assemble a knowledgeable team to help with the project. Guests can submit photos and questions ahead of time to nicole.jdcomm@gmail.com for the panel to directly address at the event.

Historic Renovation: Everything You Need to Know But Are Afraid to Ask (...Until Now!) is free however advance registration is required as space is limited. To RSVP, call 617-796-1450 or email to historicnewtonsvp@gmail.com
